WORLD #1

Contrast of two people:

Life of splendor for rich man

Who does the rich man remind us of?

Life of suffering for poor man

Lazarus (“He whom God helps”)

IN CONTRAST TO. . .

WORLD #2

Contrast of two people:

Eternity of comfort for poor man

Eternity of agony for rich man

Two requests of rich man:

1. R. Send Lazarus to help me

A. It's only fair.

A. It's impossible anyway.

2. R. Send Lazarus to help my family

A. Let them read.

A. It wouldn't work anyway

*Who is this story really for?

*What are points this story does not make?

*What is the main point this story makes?

*Who is your Lazarus?
